Ice Cream Pie

You can't mess with Mother Nature, so Hart Melvin is a patient man. Ontario's ice cream maestro and owner of Gelato Fresco knows he can't churn his Fresh Pumpkin Ice Cream (around $6 for 500 mL at Loblaws) until the province's tiny pie pumpkins are ripe and ready. One taste and you know it's worth the wait. Melvin roasts the pumpkins and uses freshly ground spices to capture the authentic flavours of a home-baked pie. If there's a finer way to chill out this Thanksgiving, we don't know it.
